Order

Central and State Governments have enforced so many regulations in the form of Lock Down to contain the spread of Novel Corona Virus (Covid-19). As per existing instructions shops selling essential items, including take away counters of hotels are allowed to function from only 7 am to 5 pm daily. However it is reported that the drivers of trucks that plies interstates are not getting food due to this regulation and are hesitant to take up their job due to this.

In this scenario government are pleased to order that the take away counters of hotels near the border check posts will be allowed throughout up to 8 pm daily to ensure food to the drivers of trucks that carry essential items to the State. District Collectors and district police chiefs concerned shall ensure that this facility is not used by others and crowd gatherings are not happening in those areas
